On May 25th, in celebration of Jewish and Asian Heritage month, the Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto, hosted the TRIBUTE TO FRIENDSHIP EXHIBITION.

Opening night highlighted the cross cultural experiences of the two cultures, and featured the works of over 25 Jewish and Chinese artists who explored the 1000 year historical legacy of the Jewish and Chinese Communities.

On display was a montage of Jewish-Chinese architectural treasures of Shanghai, by Clifford Korman of Kirkor Architects, and to round out the sensory experience, guests were treated to an array of dishes prepared by David Schwartz of Mimi Chinese and Derek Wasser of Food Dudes.

Guests were also entertained by the erhuist George Gao, the Mulan Chinese Dancers, and watched films prepared by the Shanghai Jewish Refugees Museum, and Len Rosen. Musical performances by Klezmer Fusion artists, Beyond the Pale, and the Holy Blossom Temple Singers, led by Cantor David Rosen rounded out the evening. The grand finale was a dazzling digital art projection by artist Gina Godfrey, titled "Judeo Asian Illuminations", that lit up the night. Special thanks to our cultural partner, DiverseCity Expo, supported by Baycrest and the staff and volunteers at the Chinese Cultural Centre for making the event a success.

*The exhibition continues until June 8th, open 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM daily at the Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto, 5183 Sheppard Ave. E., Scarborough, ON. Inquiries 416-292-9293 X 232
